

GOVERNMENT OF THE PUNJAB
PLANNING & DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

Dated Lahore, the 10th March, 1993

NOTIFICATION

No.1 (66) RP/P&D/90. In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 25 of the Cholistan Development Authority Act, 1976 (XIV of 1976), the Governor of the Punjab is pleased to make the following rules namely: -

THE CHOLISTAN DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY (APPOINTMENT AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE) RULES, 1993

PART – (GENERAL)

1. (a). These rules shall be called the CHOLISTAN DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY (Appointment and Conditions of Service) rules, 1993.
- (b). The rules shall come into force at once.
- (c). These rules shall apply to all the employees of the Cholistan Development Authority, Bahawalpur.

2. DEFINITION.

In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires the following expressions shall have the meaning hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say: -

- a) "Appointing Authority" in relation to a post means the person authorized under rule 6 to make appointment on that post.
- b) "Autonomous or Semi Autonomous Organization" means an organization set up under a law by the Government.
- c) "Committee" means the Committee constituted for the recruitment and promotion of the employees to certain posts.
- d) "Group" means a group of employees in the same grade performing similar duties.
- e) "Initial Recruitment" means appointment made otherwise than by promotion/deputation, transfer from Provincial Government or the Government of Pakistan and Autonomous or Semi Autonomous Organization.
- f) "Post" means a post in connection with the affairs of Authority.
- g) "Schedule" means the schedule appended to these rules.
- h) "Service" means the service of the Authority.

- i) "Temporary Post" means a post created for a limited period of time.
3. (a) There shall be one or more promotion Committees & Selection Committees to be constituted by the Chairman for recruitment and promotion of the employees to different posts.
- (b) Each such Committee shall consist of at least three members, one of whom shall be appointed as the Chairman of that committee.
4. Where an appointing authority does not accept the recommendations of a committee, it shall record reasons therefore and submit a summary of the case for orders to the Chairman of the Authority.
5. (a) Appointment to posts shall be made by promotion, transfer or initial recruitment or contract, as specified in the schedule.
- (b) Appointment by promotion or transfer shall be made in accordance with Part-II of these rules.
6. The Authorities competent to made appointment to various posts shall be as specified in Column-4 of the schedule.
7. A person appointed to a post, other than a temporary post, shall remain on probation for a period of two years if appointed by initial recruitment and for a period of one year, if appointed by promotion, provided that the Appointing Authority may further extend the period of probation but not exceeding two years in all.

EXPLANATION.

(a) Service spent on deputation to a corresponding or a higher post shall be counted towards the period of probation.

(b) No employee shall be confirmed against a post unless he has successfully completed such training and passed such departmental examination as may be prescribed by the Authority from time to time.

(c) If no order is made by the day following the completion of the initial probationary period, the period of probation shall be deemed to have been extended.

(d) Subject to the provisions of clause (b) above a probationer who has satisfactorily completed his period of probation, shall be confirmed with effect from the date of his continuous appointment.

Provided that where the period of his probation has been extended under the provision of clause (c) above the date of confirmation shall, subject to the other provisions of this rule, be the date on which the period of probation was last extended.

(e) If the work or conduct of an employee during the period of probation has been un-satisfactory, the appointing Authority may, without notice, dispense with his services, if has been appointed by initial recruitment and if he has been appointed otherwise revert him to his former post.

(f) There shall be no confirmation against any temporary post.

8. The seniority inter-se of the employees appointed to posts in the same group shall be determined:

- a) In the case of employees appointed by initial recruitment, in accordance with the order of merit assigned by the Selection Committee:

Provided that employees selected for appointment to the post in an earlier selection shall rank senior to the employees selected in the latter selection and

- b) In the case of employees appointed otherwise, with reference to the date of their continuous appointment in the post:

Provided that if the date of continuous appointment in the case of two or more employees appointed to the post is the same the older if not junior to the younger in the next below post shall rank senior to the younger employees.

EXPLANATION-I

If an employee junior in a lower post is promoted to a higher post by superseding his senior and subsequently the latter is also promoted, the promotee first shall rank senior to the one promoted subsequently.

EXPLANATION-II

Subject to the provisions of rule 10, a junior appointed to a higher post shall be deemed to have superseded his senior only if both the junior and the senior were considered for the higher post and the junior was appointed in preference to the senior.

EXPLANATION-III

The seniority of employees appointed by initial recruitment to the post vis-a-vis those appointed otherwise shall be determined with reference to the date of continuous appointment to the post Provided that if two dates are the same, the employees appointed by initial recruitment: Provided further that inter-se seniority of employees belonging to the same category will not be altered

EXPLANATION –IV

In case a group of employees is selected initial appointment at one time, the earliest date on which any one of the group joins the service will be deemed to be date of appointment of all employees in the group. Similarly in case a group of employees is appointed otherwise at one time in the same office the earliest date on which any of the group joins the service will be deemed to be the date of appointment of all employees in the group.

PART – II APPOINTMENT BY PROMOTION, TRANSFER OR DEPUTATION

9. (a) Appointments by promotion to posts in various posts shall be made on the recommendations of the appropriate committee.

(b) Promotion including Performa promotion shall not be claimed as a matter of right by any employee.

10. (a) A person in the service of the Government or an autonomous or semi-autonomous organization who possesses the minimum educational qualification, experience or length of service prescribed for a post shall be eligible for appointment to the said post on deputation, in accordance with the policy prescribed by that Government.

(b) After declaration of the service of Cholistan Development Authority, as pensionable by the Government, an employee of the Authority may be sent on deputation to a Government Department or an Autonomous or Semi-Autonomous Organization, on such terms and conditions as may be decided by the Managing Director in consultation with the borrowing Organization.

Provided that pension contribution shall invariably be paid by the borrowing organization.

(c) The Managing Director may transfer any employee from the Authority to any of its agencies and vice versa against equivalent posts and no deputation pay or allowance shall be admissible in such cases.

(d) Only such employees as possess the qualifications and meet the conditions laid down for the purpose of promotion to a post, shall be considered by the promotion committee, except where the Chairman is of the opinion that strict application of the conditions prescribed needs relaxation in individual cases for reasons to be recorded.

PART – III. INITIAL APPOINTMENT

11. (a) Initial appointments to post in grade 16 and above shall be made on the basis of examination/test or interview to be held by the appropriate committee, after advertisement of the vacancies in news-papers.

(ii) The restriction regarding age shall not apply to a candidate who is an employee of the Authority in some other capacity and

(iii) Experience, where prescribed, would include equivalent experience, in a profession or in the service of an Autonomous or Semi-Autonomous Organization or a private Organization.

(b) (i) Where recruitment is to be made on the basis of a written examination, age shall be reckoned as on the first day of the month in which the examination is proposed to be held.

(ii) In other cases, as on the last date fixed for submission of application for appointment.

13. No person shall be appointed to a post unless he is a domicile of Punjab. Permission for the appointment of a person who is not a citizen of Pakistan will be needed from the Government.

14. A candidate for appointment must be in good mental and bodily health and free from any physical defect likely to hinder with the discharge of his duties. A candidate who after such medical examination as the Authority may specify is found not to satisfy these requirements, shall not be appointed.

15. (a) No person, not already in the service of the Authority shall be appointed to a post unless he produces certificates of character from two responsible persons not being his relatives who are well acquainted with his character and antecedents in addition to a certificate of character from the head of the academic institution last attended, where applicable.

(b) Notwithstanding any thing contained in clause (a) an appointment by initial recruitment shall be subject to the verification of character and antecedents of the candidate to the satisfaction of the appointing authority.

16. Where the interest of the Authority so requires, a person may be appointed on contract, for a period not exceeding three years at a time, on terms and conditions to be specified in the contract against a specified post. All such appointments shall require prior approval of the Chairman of the Authority.

PART – IV

17. A permanent employee may resign from service by giving a one month notice or forfeiting one month pay in lieu thereof, provided that if the notice falls short of one month the employee shall have to forfeit pay for the period falling short of one month.

18. The service of an employee recruited against a temporary post may be terminated on 30 days notice or on payment of one month's pay in lieu thereof. In case he resigns from service, he will have to give one month's notice or forfeit one month's pay in lieu thereof.

19. In the event of a post being abolished or the posts in a group of the same grade being reduced in number, the services of the junior most employee in such a group shall be terminated after giving such employee thirty days notice or pay in lieu thereof.

20. An employee of the Authority shall retire from service: -

- a) On such date after he has completed twenty five years of service qualifying for pension or other retirement benefits, as the competent authority may, in the public interest, direct or
- b) Where no direction is given under clause (a) on the completion of sixty years of his age.
- c) Subject to the approval by Finance Department/Competent Authority, the employees of Cholistan Development Authority, shall be entitled to the following pensions Rules 1963 under the West Pakistan Civil Service Pension Rules, 1963 as amended & benefits extended from time to time: -
